P.C.

1. Heard the learned counsel for the applicants and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. The applicants have been convicted mainly under Section 304(I) of IPC. The applicants are now seeking bail.

3. Mr.Janardhan, the learned counsel appearing for the applicants states that the applicants were on bail throughout the trial and they have not misused the liberty granted to him and they have clean record. Both these statements are not controverted by the prosecution. Mr.Janardhan further submitted that the applicants have not used any deadly weapons and in the course of quarrel, the applicants have inflicted injuries only by means of sticks and wooden logs. Hence, he prayed that the applicants be released on bail. Looking to the evidence on record and the above position, I am inclined to release the applicants on bail.

4. Each of the applicants to be released on bail in the sum of Rs.10,000/-(Rs.Ten Thousand only) with one or two sureties to make up the said amount. The applicants shall report to the concerned Police Station, once in a fortnight.

5. Application is disposed of.
